UF | UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA

The University of Florida is home to 35,000 undergraduate and 17,000 graduate students. Established in 1853, the University is built on 2,000 acres of central Gainesville land. UF is made up of 16 individual colleges and over 150 research centers. Truly an academic and athletic powerhouse, the University of Florida is consistently ranked as a Top 8 Public University, and has won 35 NCAA national titles as of 2019.

This area is also where you will find UF Health/Shands, a massive healthcare complex that is a Top 50 healthcare provider in the nation. The University of Florida and UF Health/Shands are the top two employers in Alachua County, employing 27,870 and 12,000 residents respectively. The large student and employee population makes this market area very popular with businesses looking for a high amount of foot traffic and the captive audience of students and employees that are in this area every day. The main intersection in this area is NW 13th St & University Ave with an average daily traffic count of 36,000.
